

SENSATIONAL SCIENTIST MAE JEMISON

Q1. How do you think the article shows us that we don't have to limit our dreams?

Q2. Who did Mae like to talk to about cosmology? Write your answer as a full sentence.

Q3. Write in each box whether the statements are true or false.

Statement	True or false
Mae was the first black woman to go into space.
Mae spent time working as a medic in Thailand and South Africa.
Mae was given the mission of her dreams in September 1992.

Q4. Can you find the missing letters from words in the text?

m _ s s _ _ n

_ A _ A

u _ _ v e _ s _

s _ a r _ h i _

Q5. Match the box on the left to the information on the right. Use the text to help you.

Mae didn't give up her other passions.

After her mission, Mae was ready for new challenges.

Mae saw that NASA were looking for people to train as astronauts.

She went back to college to make sure her engineering skills were up to scratch.

She started her own company to find new ways to use the latest technology to help people.

She kept on dancing and got a degree in African American studies too.

